

PVP Status – Small Grains

As of September 18, 2025

New varieties with a PVP Status level of 0, 1, 2, or 3 may be updated to a different level in the future. Level is updated at KCIA when new certificate lists are published online by the Plant Variety Protection Office (PVPO) or upon verified notification from the breeder. This document does not reflect other protections such as patents or use agreements. Additional licensing and/or marketing restrictions may apply.

This list does not include all varieties found in the marketplace. For varieties not listed or status updates please refer to the PVPO website, or contact the breeder/genetics provider or the KCIA office.
